RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. The general rules and regulations posted on the website apply to all shows and exhibits.
2. Due to limited space, booths will be assigned on a first come, first served basis. Exhibits are limited to a 7 ft. wide and 6 ft. deep space. Number of spaces, are equally assigned for 4-H clubs and FFA chapters. (8 total)
*The Recreation Hall went under some construction and we had to amend the size and number of exhibits. If you go over your space, you will not be judged.
3. 4H/FFA members should be involved in booth construction. Exhibits must show significant student involvement. Anything viewed as only teacher, leader or parent involvement will be dimly viewed and handled accordingly.
4. All exhibits will be judged in their own category, (example: 4H vs 4H, FFA vs FFA). There must be at least 3 entries in each division to make up a category.
5. Any activity in the booth (demonstration, slides, etc.) must remain in the booths while fair is open to public.
6. Exhibits should be removed on Saturday, February 25, 2017 between the hours of 2:00pm and 6:00pm.

PLEASE NOTE: Any exhibits that are removed early during the 2017 SEYF will be closely monitored and is not permitted. Removal of a club exhibit prior to February 25, 2017 will result in ineligibility for the future, and forfeiting any prizes/premium money won.
