Leadership. Women that lead as well as they serve are hard to come by, but this award was named for such an individual. Bertie Hill was one of the most active and outstanding members of the Marion County Cattlewomen. In hopes of encouraging these same attributes in the young ladies participating in beef projects, the Bertie Hill Award was established. Each year an engraved tray is given to recognize a deserving young lady.

TO QUALIFY

- You must be a deserving female participating in the SEYF Beef Heifer project as a FFA or 4-H member.
- Must display outstanding character, integrity, citizenship and demonstrate excellent leadership skills.
- Must have shown beef heifers for at least two years at the SEYF and involved in the beef industry.
- A SEYF record book is required.
- One letter of recommendation from a prominent or well-known citizen (not related to applicant) attesting to the character and citizenship qualities of the applicant.

*Marion County Cattlewomen reserve the right to interview candidates as deemed necessary by selection committee during the week of February 5th- 9th, 2024

AWARDS

Chosen candidate will receive an Engraved Tray presented by the Marion County Cattlewomen, this is a one time award.
