

Swine Herdsman Guidelines

The Herdsman award is designed to encourage and acknowledge the great work of any 4-H Club or FFA Chapter as they care for their animal during the show. Committee members will make all final decisions to determine the winners. All of the following guidelines will be considered when choosing the top three contestants.

- The name of the club/chapter must be clearly posted and be legible
- The isle must be clear of all items and tack boxes
- All stalls in the club/chapter must be decorated
- All exhibitors must feed and water their own animal not the advisors
- Stalls must be cleaned daily
- Animals must be checked on periodically
- Dressed in proper attire when showing animals and in barn
- Show respect - consideration - proper attitude and cooperation toward ALL animals, members, equipment, supplies and facilities as well as judges and spectators.
- Fill out and properly display stall cards
- Ready to show and be on time for classes
- Observes all rules and regulations of the barn are followed
- Has an attitude of good sportsmanship
- Helpful to other exhibitors and committee members

There will be awards for the top three 4-H clubs or FFA Chapters.

1st Place-

2nd Place-

3rd Place-