Every year, Marion County Cattlewomen recognize a young lady in honor of Bess Miller. Bess Miller served as a working member of both the Marion County Cattlewomen and Florida CattleWomen Inc. She was a beloved member for many years, who was passionate about the youth of our county in the agriculture industry.

To qualify the recipient must:

- be an active member of FFA and/ or 4H and in good standing.
- participate in the Southeastern Youth Fair Steer project for two years and currently entered in the Southeastern Youth Fair Steer project.
- be actively involved in the Beef Industry with a working knowledge of approved animal husbandry practices, sound management practices and good record keeping skills.
- exhibit integrity, dedication and leadership skills.
- submit a Southeastern Youth Fair Steer record book for judging.
- include at least one letter of recommendation (not related to applicant) attesting to the qualities listed above.

Qualified applicants who submit a completed application will be required to interview with Marion County Cattlewomen.

An engraved tray will be presented by the Marion County Cattlewomen during the Southeastern Youth Fair Steer Awards (please see schedule).
